

West Texas A&M University opens the First United Bank Classroom in the College of Business

February 25, 2011

First United Bank is proud to sponsor the newly remodeled First United Bank classroom in the College of Business at West Texas A&M University. The classroom was opened in time for the Spring 2011 semester and is currently utilized by the students for computer information and decision making courses. Neal Weaver, Vice President for Institutional Advancement at West Texas A&M University stated, "I want to thank First United Bank for your generous gift for the classroom and for your support of WT. Your gifts will benefit thousands of students, both now and in the future."

